With the financial assistance offered by the Government of India towards the expansion of Secondary Education, orders were issued in regard to the introduction of bifurcated courses (100 in number) in selected secondary schools in 1955-56. Nine courses were introduced in five Govt. schools. Buildings have to be provided (a grant will be available from the Govt. of India for each building) in connection with the introduction of the new courses. Proposals in respect of three of the schools have already been approved by the Government.

2. The Director has now submitted proposals for the construction of buildings for the courses introduced in the two remaining schools in Brahadambal High School for Boys, Pudukottai and the Government Secondary and Training school for Women, Mangalore, at a total cost of Rs.65,000/- (towards which a grant of Rs.42,900/- has been sanctioned by the Govt. of India). P.W.D. and Finance have agreed to the proposals.
